2017 GPCA Leadership Program - Only 1 Week Left to Register!

Now is the final call for nominations to be submitted to be part of the next leadership class!

You might, or might not, be aware that the program was completely revamped for the 2015-2016 class. There was added class time, a project, and all new content prepared and delivered by Mark DiNunzio of Market Point Solutions. Mark provided a fantastic program and has agreed to participate again for the next Leadership class. In addition, we have made even further updates as the program continues to grow and mature. This includes adding another full day of contact time to the September session. This extra contact time is from direct feedback from the last class's participants.

Mark has created a course that will truly provide immediate value to a participant at any level of your organization. This is a leadership program that can't be missed.

The GPCA leadership committee and Executive Board is once again accepting applications for the 2017-2018 class and I would like to personally ask you to consider having a colleague submit an application. Consider somebody that is actively seeking growth and would be an engaged participant. A little effort on their part will return exponentially more reward.

Decisions need to be made and applications must be submitted by February 28th so, time is of the essence. You'll find the links for the application and agenda below.

I sincerely appreciate your assistance.

Respectfully,

Glen Ramsey
